            regulations have changed, requirements
 2 have changed.
     QUESTIONS BY MR. BOIES:
 3
 4
            Q.
                   Who were the experts at the time that you're referring to?
 5
 6
            Α.
                   Steve Cutler would be the 7 primary one that I would refer to, and he had 8
     a whole team of people, some of whom had been 9 for -- in the prosecutor's and the Department 10 of Justice. He had been the SEC enforcement 11 chief, and very many capable people in 12 compliance and experts in AML sanctions, et 13 cetera.
14
            Q.
                   Is it fair to say that you 15 believe the bank should have done what 16
     Mr. Cutler concluded was the appropriate 17 thing to do?
18
                   MR. BUTTS: Objection.
                                            Same 19 instruction.
20
                   You may answer.
21
                   THE WITNESS: Cutler was the 22 ultimate authority. It didn't mean 23 that because he didn't like something 24 he wouldn't allow a businessperson to 25 make a different judgment call.
```

1
                   If he had felt that it had gone
 2 over the line, he would have kicked it 3 out, and he had the authority to do 4
            it.
 5
                   So, yes.
 6
     QUESTIONS BY MR. BOIES:
 7
            Ο.
                   Well, I'm not sure I understand 8 that answer.
 9
                   You said that the experts were 10 the people in charge when Jeffrey Epstein was 11
     a customer of the bank.
12 Correct?
13
            Α.
                   Yes.
14
                   And I asked you who those Q.
15 experts were, and you said Mr. Cutler.
16 Correct?
17
            Α.
                   A team of experts.
18
            Q.
                   What?
19
                   A team of experts. I said
            Α.
20 compliance, legal, AML, people who would have 21 been in enforcement, people who would have 22 been out of the DOJ prosecution. He was the 23 most senior of them -- 24
            Q.
                   Okay.
                   MR. BUTTS: Let him finish.
25
```

```
1
           Α.
                   He had the right to do the 2 second, and he had the right to do the first.
 3 Okay. So there is -- Q.
 4
                   MR. BUTTS: David, please let 5
           him finish.
 6
                   THE WITNESS: In his judgment, 7
           he would make that decision.
 8
     QUESTIONS BY MR. BOIES:
 9
           Q.
                   Okay. So he could -- 10
                   MR. BUTTS: Are you finished?
11
                   THE WITNESS:
                                 Yes.
12
                   MR. BUTTS: Okay. Now your 13 turn.
14
     QUESTIONS BY MR. BOIES:
15
                   So he could decide to let the Ο.
16 businessperson make the call not to terminate 17
     Mr. Epstein, even though he believed that 18
     Mr. Epstein should be terminated; is that 19 fair?
20
                   MR. BUTTS: Objection. Asked 21
           and answered.
22
                   THE WITNESS: I think it was 23 quite clear because you're kind of 24 changing my meaning.
25
                   If he thought it rose to the
```

```
1 level -- an excess level, he would 2 have said, you can't.
                   If he didn't, sometimes he 3 4
            said, my advice is you shouldn't do 5 it, but it's your call.
 6
     QUESTIONS BY MR. BOIES:
                   And what this excess level is 7
            Ο.
 8 that you refer to is not anything that's 9 written down; that's just a question of 10 judgment, right?
11
                   There's a group of people who 12 review these things, and they all -- I think 13 they all know at the end of the day that if 14 there's a dispute, he is the final arbiter.
15
           Ο.
                   Didn't you just tell me that he 16
     might think somebody ought to be terminated, 17 but he had the right to say to the 18 businessperson, it's your call, if you don't 19 want to terminate him, let him continue to be 20
     a customer?
21
                   MR. BUTTS: Objection.
                                            Asked 22
           and answered.
23
                   THE WITNESS: It's the weight 24 of the scale. People disagree, and he 25 doesn't think it hit the level where
```

```
1
                   You've got to read the stuff
           Α.
 2 that's come out. That's -- 3
                   MR. BUTTS: Yeah, I think you 4 have the record. He's not here to translate what he's learned from us.
 5
 6
                   MR. BOIES: Well --
 7
                   THE WITNESS: Maybe he doesn't 8
           know.
 9
                   MR. BUTTS: Yeah. I -- either 10 you or your team has the same 11 discovery we have.
12
                   MR. BOIES: Well, but he's -- 13
                   THE WITNESS:
                                 There are 14 terrible -- there are terrible -- 15
                   MR. BOIES: He's the chief 16 executive, and I'm not.
17
                                 There are
                   THE WITNESS: 18
           terrible allegations, which, if true, 19 meant that he knew a lot of things 20 sometime during that period that we 21 didn't. And I would include in that 22
           Steve Cutler and Mary Erdoes.
23
     QUESTIONS BY MR. BOIES:
24
           Ο.
                   But what I'm trying to get at
     is, what are those serious allegations?
25
```

- 1 it was in January of 2013 that JPMorgan
- entered into a cease and desist consent order
- with the Office of the Comptroller of
- 4 Currency?
- 5 A. I don't recall the date, but,
- 6 yes, I do remember the consent order, yeah.
- 7 Q. And does that refresh your
- 8 recollection in any way as to whether this
- 9 report to you may have been related to that
- 10 consent cease and desist order?
- MR. BUTTS: Objection to form.
- You may answer.
- THE WITNESS: I don't remember,
- but it may have been what prompted me
- to ask.
- 16 QUESTIONS BY MS. SINGER:
- Q. Okay. We can put that document
- 18 aside.
- 19 All right. Were you aware,
- 20 Mr. Dimon, of efforts at JPMorgan to launch a
- donor-advised fund with Bill Gates and The
- 22 Gates Foundation?
- 23 A. Only as a result of this --
- 24 these lawsuits.
- Q. Okay. So at no time --

1
           Α.
                   Or what came out with Epstein 2 before.
 3
            Q.
                   So prior to 2015, were you 4
     aware of efforts at JPMorgan to launch a 5 donor-advised fund with Bill Gates through The Gates Foundation?
 6
                   I don't -- I was not, no.
 7
 8
            Q.
                   Okay. So I take it you also 9 were not aware that Jeffrey Epstein played a 10 role in those discussions?
11
                   MR. BUTTS: Objection.
12
                   You may answer.
13
                   THE WITNESS: Oh, absolutely I 14 was not aware. Nor do we need Jeff 15
            Epstein to talk to Bill Gates.
16 QUESTIONS BY MS. SINGER:
17
                   Were you aware that Mary Erdoes 18 and Jes Staley had regular communications 19 with Jeffrey Epstein about that donor-advised 20 fund?
21
           Α.
                   I am now.
22
                   MR. BUTTS: Objection.
23
     OUESTIONS BY MS. SINGER:
24 0.
                   And were you aware that the 25 hope was that donor-advised fund would reach
```
